

Gender Identity and Attractionality (GIAA)

Wednesdays 2:00PM - 3:30PM

A support group for MSU Graduate Students

This Gender Identity and Attractionality Support Group (GIAA) will address life and relational issues related to romantic and sexual attraction, sexual identity, and gender identity for graduate students, particularly LGBTQ+ (including questioning) students.

Topics are based on student interests and may include: diversity of relationship styles; exploring identity and identity development; trust and connections; dealing with heterosexism and cissexism and internalized homophobia and transphobia; dating/dating technology; attraction and romance; family dynamics; faith and identity; balancing academics with life; intersectional identities. All meetings will be held weekly over Zoom.

Group Facilitators:

Victor Leon (he/him), LLMSW, Ginny Blakely (she/her), LMSW, & Dan Murphy (he/him), MA, Doctoral Intern

Counseling & Psychiatric Services (CAPS)
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

LGBTQIA+ Graduate Students

Group Meets Weekly
Starting
January 27, 2021

Looking for peer support
in regards to sexuality,
gender, relationships,
friendships?

Looking for a space where you can be open about who you are?
(Whether you have figured it out or not)

This is a virtual group held weekly on Zoom

Requires Group Screening

For more info, screening, and registration, contact Victor Leon
leonvict@msu.edu

(link upon registration)